

What is it
But A DREAM

◆ Transition IV

Long has paled that sunny sky
Echoes fade and memories die
Autumn frosts have slain July Still she haunts me, phantomwise

What is it
But DREAM

Dear friend,

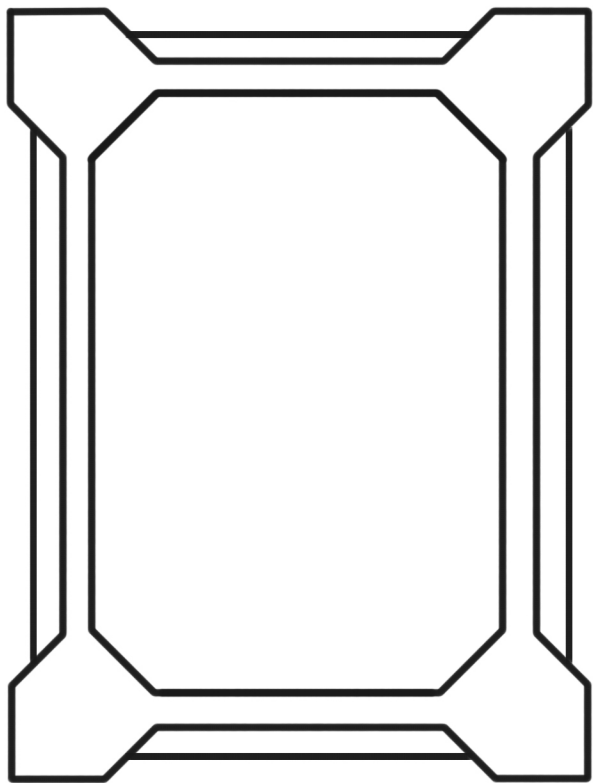

Welcome to my wonderland.

Here you can find,

A Book of Poems,
Six cards,
and A Magical Lens.

Begin your wonderland journey by putting ALL SIX cards in the slots of the book in ANY order you want.

Use the lens to read the book by scanning all the images and you shall understand what I see in this world.

When necessary, you need to collect the SPECIAL ITEMS to unlock new adventures

Remember
order and logic DON'T APPLY in this world.

Yours truly,

Alice

◆ Transition I

Child of the pure unclouded brow
And dreaming eyes of wonder

Though the shadow of a sigh
May tremble through the story

It shall not touch with breath of bale
The pleasance of our fairytale

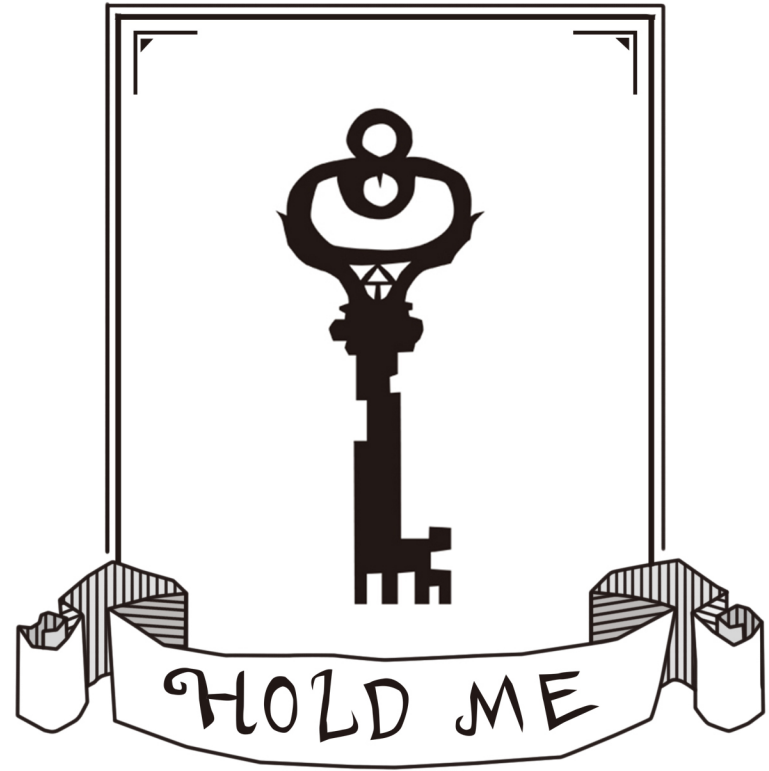

◆ Transition III

So she sat on with closed eyes half believed herself in Wonderland though she knew she had but to open them again and all would change to dull ...

REALITY

◆ Transition II

Alice said nothing

She had sat down again with her face in her hands wondering if anything would ever happen in a natural way again
